LIFESTYLE BLOGGER

I am a Carolina girl living in the suburbs of Washington, D.C. with a rapidly growing audience on my blog, The Yasmin Marie, and social media. On top of being a mother of two, I am 15 year career Naval Officer teaching Cyber at the US Naval Academy. When I am not teaching Cyber or momming my tweens, you will find me working out and creating content for my audience to empower them to be their best version of themselves.
